from conducting FX transactions by collecting cash balances or crediting cash balances by a non-bank financial institution to an account through the cash desk (branch, office) of a bank where the account is held received as a result of the sale from the non-bank financial institution's FX account of cashless foreign currency, which was credited to such account from FX transactions or received as compensation for FX banknotes accepted for collection.

(paragraph 3 has been supplemented with new subparagraph 8 by NBU Board Resolution No. 88 dated 30 June 2023)

(paragraph 3 in the wording of NBU Board Resolution No. 44 dated 8 March 2022)

3¹. Payment services providers authorized to make payments of financial assistance from international humanitarian organizations and other non-governmental organizations for Ukrainian citizens affected by hostilities, acts of terrorism, sabotage as a result of the armed aggression of the Russian Federation against Ukraine shall have the right to issue cash transfers in the domestic currency related to the payment of such financial assistance, without presenting by such an individual of a passport of a citizen of Ukraine or other identity document that can be used in Ukraine to conduct transactions in line with Ukrainian laws, on the basis of a certificate that confirms submission of documents for the issuance of a passport of a citizen of Ukraine issued by an administrative service center, a state enterprise subordinated to the State Migration Service of Ukraine, its standalone unit, territorial body or territorial subdivision of the State Migration Service of Ukraine, in line with the form under Annex 3 to the Procedure for issuing a certificate of registration of an internally displaced person, approved by Resolution of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine No. 509 dated 1 October 2014 (as amended), in the amount not exceeding UAH 50,000 per day per recipient.

(new paragraph 3¹ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 195 dated 28 December 2023)

4. All cashless payments shall be made without limitation, except in cases established by this Resolution.

(paragraph 4 as amended by NBU Board Resolution No. 72 dated 21 June 2024)

4¹. Acquirers are authorized not to provide a user with a transaction document, if the transaction is performed using electronic means of payment and the electronic means of payment is used through the acquirer's payment terminal.

Payment services providers shall ensure cashless settlements with electronic means of payment and resolve disputes arising from and/or related to such transactions, regardless of whether a user has a document confirming the transaction using electronic means of payment.

(new paragraph 4¹ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 81 dated 22 April 2022)

4². For the period from 1 October 2024 through 31 March 2025, the account-servicing payment service provider shall be forbidden to transfer, using the details of electronic means of payment of recipient individuals, a total of UAH 150,000 or more per month within Ukraine from all accounts of a user individual opened with said payment service provider in the domestic currency to accounts of other recipient individuals.

(new paragraph 4² has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 102 dated 27 August 2024)

4³. The prohibition set forth in paragraph 4² hereof shall not apply to transfers between the user individual's own accounts.

(new paragraph 4³ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 102 dated 27 August 2024)

4⁴. Payment service providers are obliged to develop and approve internal documents on the procedure for making a decision not to apply the prohibition specified in paragraph 4² hereof.

Internal documents shall provide for:

- 1) description of approaches, criteria, and control procedures for determining an activity as volunteering
- 2) internal distribution of powers to recognize activities as volunteering
- 3) procedures for further control (confirmation of the voluntary nature of the activity)

4) procedure for obtaining confirmation of the sources of income of a user individual

5) description of management reporting.

(new paragraph 4⁴ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 102 dated 27 August 2024)

4⁵. In accordance with internal regulations, the account-servicing payment services provider has the right to make a decision not to apply the prohibition specified in paragraph 4² hereof in the following cases:

1) if the amount of income from confirmed sources of funds exceeds the limit specified in paragraph 4² hereof

2) if funds are transferred to or from accounts of user individuals who are not business entities and are engaged in volunteer activities (hereinafter referred to as “volunteers”).

In line with paragraph 4⁵ subparagraph 1 hereof, the payment service provider shall apply a limit that equals the amount of the user's total monthly income from confirmed sources of funds.

(new paragraph 4⁵ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 102 dated 27 August 2024)

4⁶. The payment service provider has the right to designate the activity of a user individual as volunteering in accordance with the internal documents specified in paragraph 4⁴ hereof, provided that at least two of the following requirements are met simultaneously:

1) a user individual is officially registered as a volunteer

2) fundraising as part of volunteer work is a typical activity on the accounts of a user individual with a payment service provider

3) a user individual has submitted a letter from the state authority/military unit/charity foundation regarding cooperation in organizing fundraising

4) a user individual has provided information on the planned amount and timing of fundraising, indicating the purpose of such fundraising and the further intended use of the funds raised

5) information from open sources, social networks, and the Internet, when compared with other information available to the payment service provider, confirms the user individual's involvement in volunteer activities and the purpose of the fundraising as part of the volunteer activities.

The payment service provider shall take into account any negative information about the business reputation and bad-faith practices of the user individual, specifically the legitimacy and transparency of fundraising, as well as about the compliance of the declared purpose of the fundraising with the actual spending of the funds raised.

Any information, including information from public sources, on bad-faith volunteer practices of the user individual available to the payment service provider can be the grounds for refusal to continue carrying out such transactions in the amount that exceeds the limit specified in paragraph 4² hereof.

(new paragraph 4⁶ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 102 dated 27 August 2024)

5. Cash withdrawals from client accounts in a foreign currency shall be limited to the equivalent of UAH 100,000 per day (without accrued commissions), except for cash withdrawals in a foreign currency from the following accounts:

12¹⁷. Bank carries out FX purchase and sale swaps with its clients at the exchange rate specified in the money market derivative contract concluded between a bank and its client.

(new paragraph 12¹⁷ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 222 dated 20 October 2022)

12¹⁸. Bank performs transactions on purchase/sale of foreign currency (U.S. dollars) for hryvnias set forth in paragraph 12 subparagraph 1⁵ of said Resolution at the expense of their own currency position. Bank has the right to apply to the NBU with the aim of purchasing U.S. dollars at the special session. Bank purchases U.S. dollars at the special session at the NBU's official exchange rate which was effective on the previous business day prior to such purchase provided that the purchased funds will be placed on the account with the NBU. The total amount of a bank's purchased and placed funds on such account with the NBU at the beginning of each business day cannot exceed by more than USD 50,000 the total amount of the bank's attracted funds (deposits) from individuals as of the beginning of the same business day pursuant to the requirements set forth in paragraph 12 subparagraph 1⁵ of said Resolution. The bank at their own discretion is obliged to consider compliance with this requirement when determining the amount to be requested from the NBU on transactions within the special session.

The NBU shall accrue interest on balances in the bank's FX account at a rate that corresponds to Federal Funds Target Range - Lower Limit. Interest is accrued only for the days when banks complied with the requirement set forth in subparagraph 12¹⁸ indent one hereof. Interest accrued in foreign currency shall be monthly paid to a bank in the domestic currency calculated at the NBU's official rate on the interest payment date.

Bank sells foreign currency placed by a bank on account with the NBU according to paragraph 12¹⁸ indent one hereof to the NBU only at the special session at the NBU's official exchange rate which was effective on the previous business day prior to such purchase.

The special session to buy/sell U.S. dollars on tod terms according to paragraph 12¹⁸ indent one and indent three hereof is held by the NBU on a daily basis from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m. through Refinitiv and Bloomberg or (if Refinitiv and Bloomberg are unavailable) by phone against prepayment by the bank.

To perform the transactions at the special session, the bank needs to address the NBU through Refinitiv and Bloomberg or by phone (using phone numbers to be provided by the NBU additionally) and specify the amount of U.S. dollars to be sold or purchased that needs to be no less than USD 50,000, or balances in foreign currency on the bank's account with the NBU (if the transaction to sell foreign currency is performed by the NBU).

(new paragraph 12¹⁸ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 222 dated 20 October 2022)

1) as a charity donation in foreign currency from non-resident legal persons or cross-border transfers from non-resident individuals, except for the residents of russia/belarus (unless the individual has a document confirming temporary protection status in other countries)

2) in domestic currency in Ukraine, from resident legal persons and resident and nonresident individuals.

The prohibition to transfer funds from accounts in the domestic currency of resident individuals to accounts of non-resident individuals established by Section X paragraph 116 of Regulation No. 5 shall not apply to transactions specified in paragraph 17³ subparagraph 2 hereof.

(paragraph 17³ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 53 dated 9 May 2025)

18. The NBU conducts from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily on business days through the functionalities of Refinitiv and/or Bloomberg trade information systems transactions on TOD terms with banks to buy and sell U.S. dollars in order to perform the following tasks:

1) covering the structural component of the net demand for foreign currency in the FX market of Ukraine: by selling (usually on a daily basis) U.S. dollars in the amount corresponding to the NBU's estimates of the volume of the abovementioned structural component of the net demand. The NBU shall conduct estimates in accordance with the procedure established by it. Such estimates are not to be published.

2) smoothing out the operation of the FX market of Ukraine by purchasing or selling U.S. dollars in case of excessive changes in the UAH/USD exchange rate quotations (the level of change in the UAH/USD exchange rate considered excessive by the NBU shall be determined by a separate NBU regulation and shall not be disclosed) and/or the limited ability of the FX market to come into balance, and/or a temporary loss of pricing benchmarks by the FX market.

Transactions specified in paragraph 18 subparagraphs 1 and 2 of this Resolution shall be conducted in the form of single-rate interventions, best rate interventions, and an FX auction.

The NBU conducts starting from 3:30 p.m. daily on business days transactions on TOM terms with banks to buy and sell U.S. dollars.

The bank is authorized to execute transactions on TOM terms specified in paragraph 18 hereof if such transactions are executed to meet the needs of: defense of Ukraine state-owned enterprises or business entities, in which 100 percent of the shares (stakes) are owned by the state, and which are natural gas market participants entrusted by the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine with special responsibilities for forming natural gas resources pursuant to Article 11 of the Law of Ukraine On Natural Gas Market

Transactions on TOM terms are conducted at the official UAH/USD exchange rate set on the day of the transaction and effective on the next business day after the setting. To perform the transactions on TOM terms to purchase and sell U.S. dollars, the bank shall address the NBU through Refinitiv and Bloomberg or by phone (using phone numbers to be provided by the NBU additionally) and specify the amount of U.S. dollars to be sold or purchased that needs to be no less than USD 100,000.

(new paragraph 18 has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 21 dated 24 February 2022, as amended by NBU Board Resolutions No. 30 dated 1 March 2022, No. 36 dated 4 March 2022, No. 58 dated 21 March 2022, No. 96 dated 9 May 2022, No. 222 dated 20 October 2022, in the wording of NBU Board Resolution No. 121 dated 2 October 2023, indent five of paragraph 18 has been replaced with new indents five through nine by NBU Board Resolution No. 35 dated 20 March 2025)

18¹. Removed.

(paragraph 18¹ has been removed by NBU Board Resolution No. 70 dated 2 July 2025)

18². The NBU shall make transactions to sell cashless foreign currency to foreign central banks for cash hryvnias in order to set up conditions for foreign financial institutions to make transactions to exchange cash hryvnias for local currencies in countries hosting Ukrainian refugees. Apart from that, this step will prevent excessive exchange rate fluctuations from occurring in such transactions. The procedure and terms for conducting transactions to sell cashless foreign currency to foreign central banks for cash hryvnias shall be set in specific agreements entered into by and between the NBU and foreign central banks.

(new paragraph 18² has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 55 dated 18 March 2022)

19. Banks have the right to sell foreign currency to customers at the expense of their own currency position in order to fulfill their customers' obligations to other banks under credit agreements (including interest).

(new paragraph 19 has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 21 dated 24 February 2022)

19¹. The Central Counterparty and banks shall have the right to conduct settlements on transactions on domestic government debt securities exclusively in the currency of the face value of said securities.

Requirements of paragraph 19¹ indent one hereof shall not apply to settlements of the second leg of repo transactions of domestic government debt securities if settlements of the first leg of repo transactions of domestic government debt securities were transacted before 23 February 2022 inclusive.

(paragraph 19¹ has been supplemented with new indent by NBU Board Resolution No. 183 dated 19 August 2022)

3) granting foreign currency loans for clients/borrowers to purchase foreign currency securities.

(paragraph 19³ has been supplemented with a new subparagraph 3 by NBU Board Resolution No. 136 dated 19 November 2024)

19⁴. Banks have the right to conduct settlements with non-residents under transactions with securities of foreign issuers exclusively in foreign currency.

Banks are prohibited from performing the alienation of securities of foreign issuers and/or other actions that may result in the alienation of securities of foreign issuers in favor of:

1) 1) residents (except for other banks)

2) non-residents, except for transactions under agreements to purchase or sell such securities, limited to performing settlements in foreign currency under said agreements with non-residents outside Ukraine and/or through cross-border transfers.

(new paragraph 19⁴ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 222 dated 20 October 2022, in the wording of NBU Board Resolution No. 124 dated 6 October 2023)

19⁵. The FX transactions defined in paragraph 14 subparagraphs 28, 42, 42³ and 43 hereof, on behalf of resident clients, are allowed to be made no earlier than the deadline (the most distant date) determined by the terms of the loan agreement for the timely fulfillment of the relevant debt obligations of the resident borrower to a non-resident under said agreement. The bank is prohibited from making amendments to the account of the loan agreement in the Loan Agreements with Non-residents AIS regarding documents on reducing the timeframe of fulfillment by the resident borrower of debt liabilities to a non-resident under such agreement, and in the case of FX transactions specified in paragraph 14 subparagraph 28 hereof, regarding documents on moving the dates and amounts of interest payments for the period after 24 February 2022 (inclusive) from other periods preceding this date.

(paragraph 19⁵ indent one as amended by NBU Board Resolution No. 56 dated 3 May 2024) No. 95 dated 5 August 2025)

The requirements of paragraph 19⁵ indent one hereof shall not apply to:

1) loan agreements (transactions conducted to discharge the relevant debt liabilities of a resident borrower under the respective agreement) specified in paragraph 14 subparagraphs 42 and 42³ hereof, provided that all the transactions/payments/settlements (including granting/obtaining/repaying any part of the loan) under such an agreement were conducted exclusively after 20 June 2023 (except for loan agreements specified in paragraph 14 subparagraph 41¹ hereof)

(paragraph 19⁵ subparagraph 1 as amended by NBU Board Resolution No. 2 dated 13 January 2026)

2) the cases when terms are decreased for performance of debt liabilities by a resident borrower to a non-resident under a loan agreement that are only applied to offset mentioned liabilities of the resident borrower under the loan agreement and liabilities under a transaction to increase the authorized capital of the resident borrower by the non-resident (upon documentary confirmation of the registration of said increase in the authorized capital of the resident as of the record date in the Loan Agreements with Nonresidents AIS of the respective change to the account that corresponds to the loan agreement).

(paragraph 19⁵ indent two has been replaced with three new indents, two through four, by NBU Board Resolution No. 95 dated 5 August 2025)

(new indent has been added to paragraph 19⁵ by NBU Board Resolution No. 124 dated 6 October 2023)

(new paragraph 19⁵ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 73 dated 15 June 2023, as amended by NBU Board Resolution No. 77 dated 20 June 2023)

19⁶. An FX transaction defined in paragraph 14 subparagraph 43 hereof (except for the transfer of funds for the purpose of repaying the principal amount of a loan) on behalf of resident borrower under loan agreement concluded with a non-resident (hereinafter referred to as “the regular FX transaction”) is allowed to be made only if the amount of payments for the use of the loan under such an agreement does not exceed the amount of payments at the maximum interest rate of 12% per annum (hereinafter referred to as “the maximum interest rate”).

(new paragraph 19⁶ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 77 dated 20 June 2023)

19⁷. For the purpose of monitoring compliance with the requirement that such payments do not surpass the maximum interest rate, the bank shall:

1) include into payments for the use of a loan under a loan agreement all transactions by a resident borrower for the payment of interest, commissions, fees, and other payments (except for the principal amount of the loan) in favor of a non-resident creditor/lender that are carried out in accordance with the relevant agreement. The amount of payments for the use of the loan under the agreement is calculated (in the currency of the loan) on the date of the regular FX transaction as a sum of previously made payments for the use of the loan plus the amount of the regular FX transaction

2) not include into payments for the use of the loan under the loan agreement commission fees of the servicing bank and the non-resident bank for the transfer of funds in foreign currency under the relevant loan agreement that are paid at the expense of the resident borrower.

3) calculate the amount of payments at the maximum interest rate (in the currency of the loan) as the estimated sum of interest payments calculated using the maximum interest rate in proportion to the time of use of the funds under the loan (taking into account the dates and amounts of all actually performed transactions for taking out/repaying the loan) through the method of determining the number of days for calculating interest that is stipulated by the loan agreement (in the case of a fixed interest rate under the loan agreement) or through a “fact/fact” method that uses in the calculation the actual number of days in the corresponding calendar months and year.

The bank monitors compliance with the requirement to not exceed the amount of payments at the maximum interest rate during each regular FX transaction under a loan agreement by comparing, on the date of the regular FX transaction, the amount of payments for the use of the loan under such an agreement and the amount of payments at the maximum interest rate.

(new paragraph 19⁷ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 77 dated 20 June 2023)

19⁸. The transfer of funds by a resident (borrower, guarantee provider, surety provider) for the purpose of fulfilling obligations arising from a loan agreement specified in paragraph 14 subparagraph 411 hereof shall be carried out on the relevant grounds stipulated in paragraph 14 hereof, for transactions under which customers are allowed to transfer funds to fulfill obligations arising from loan agreements with non-residents, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in paragraph 14 subparagraph 43 indents three through seven hereof.

(new paragraph 19⁸ has been added by NBU Board Resolution No. 2 dated 13 January 2026)
