

Balance of payments in 2024

(preliminary data^{1,2} according to the Balance of Payments and International investment position manual, 6th edition)

The current account deficit totaled USD 15.1 billion, or 8.0% of GDP in 2024 (USD 9.6 billion, or 5.3 % of GDP in 2023). The deficit widened due to:

increased deficit of goods due to a faster recovery in the value of imports³ compared to exports;

reduction in the primary income surplus – a decline in compensation of employees' receipts occurred against the backdrop of increased payments on investment income.

At the same time, outbound tourists' and short-term migrants' expenditures decreased significantly.

Current account deficit excluding reinvested earnings and grants was USD 23.8 billion, or 12.5% of GDP (USD 18.0 billion, or 9.9% of GDP in 2023).

External trade in goods and services deficit widened to USD 38.6 billion comparing to USD 37.9 billion in 2023. Exports increased by 10.5%⁴ in 2024 (down by 10.8% in 2023). Imports of goods increased by 6.8% (by 7.1% in 2023), mainly due to imports of machinery.

Exports of goods increased by USD 4.7 billion, or by 13.4% and totaled USD 39.3 billion. Food exports (by 12.1%) was the main driver of exports growth – almost half was due to grains (by 13.4%); exports of oilseeds (by 20.4%), food products (by 14.8%) and meat (by 18.0%) evidenced an increase. Exports also grew for these commodity groups:

mineral exports	– by 38.9%;
(inc. due to ores)	– 1.6 times;
metallurgical exports	– by 13.7%;
chemicals	– by 13.5%;
manufactured goods	– by 3.6%.

Meanwhile, exports decreased in:

machinery and equipment exports	– by 5.4%;
